CA BOUND OVER
FOR SHOOTING OF
CELSO LOVATOand Fixed at $12,000.
Crowd at Hearing at Las Lunas

LOS ALAMOS, April 11.—(Special to The Herald.)—A jury after a preliminary hearing yesterday afternoon at Las Lunas on a charge of manslaughter connected with the killing of Celso Lovato, county commissioner of Valencia county, his bond was set at $12,000 which he had not cashed at noon today.

A crowd of nearly 500 persons crowded the courtroom for the hearing, and the testimony was given to that effect at the trial at Las Lunas yesterday. It was the effect that Lovato was attempting to get back his brother's gun from him when he was shot and the revolver which he had in his hand was discharged accidentally and that he did not intend to shoot Lovato.

Attaining an Ideal
in Service

WHEN ROSENWALD'S GROCE-TOTE was opened, it was with the firm determination to take the fixed overhead expense of a great department store and charge it off the new department—to operate a complete cash-and-carry food service which would have no overhead charges to earn—and thus to afford to Albuquerque people a complete food service at prices that would be lower, day in and day out, month in and month out, than wholesale foods could be bought elsewhere.

Adhering firmly to that pricing policy, we have accomplished what we set out to do—and no more convincing proof is needed than the instant success of the Groce-Tote and its steady growth in sales from day to day and month to month. This growth in number of Groce-Tote customers and in the number of those who buy here from day to day the great bulk of their food supplies has not only justified our effort to provide such a service for Albuquerque but has inspired us to expand that service—to round it out and make it truly a complete food service.

By the complete remodeling of the store we have been able to double the floor space of the Groce-Tote and in that increased space we are just completing the installation of a new, a modern, refrigeration and butcher service which we will open in a few days and which you will recognize at once as the most satisfactory meat market in Albuquerque.
